Community Open House at Robert Crown Center for Health Education

This event will be a great opportunity for you, your child, your students, your business and your community to build awareness of substance abuse risks and the disease of addiction.

RCC will be hosting:

- In My Shoes, an art installation by teens in recovery at Rosecrance. In My Shoes will be joined by area middle school student artists who add their own shoe stories to the exhibit.
- Hidden in Plain Sight, a mock teenage bedroom by LEAD that contains over 100 items that may indicate a child at risk.
- Video screening room to feature cutting edge documentaries for and by teens about substance abuse prevention.
- Health Risks for Athletes: The 3-Point Advantage for Athletes, sponsored by the American Medical Association. Injury and pain management are a reality in athletics. Learn the scientific facts and risks associated with the use of prescription pain pills.
- Free mini prevention presentations from professional health educators: combating addiction to tobacco, alcohol, prescription pain pills, and heroin.
