5. DISCUSSION - RETIREMENT OF ACTIVE-DUTY BOARD MEMBER

President Davi began by mentioning the implications of Sergeant Kobler's retirement on his active-duty Trustee role. He also informed the Board that the Village is currently undergoing an analysis of its options regarding the Finance functions of the municipality. President Davi reached out to Pension Board attorney Charlie Atwell regarding his interpretation of 40 ILCS 5/3-128 which provides for the composition of the Board. Trustee Kobler's current term ends at the end of April 2022 and Mr. Atwell advised that Trustee Kobler can serve the remainder of his term and if he wants to remain on the Board after this term ends, he will have to run for the retiree representative position currently held by Trustee Pec. Although not present at today's meeting, Trustee Dittman is still a member of the Board and will continue to be until her term expires or the Mayor makes another appointment. Mr. Gaskill will assist the Board with any financial reporting they may need.

6. NEW BUSINESS

None presented.

7. OLD BUSINESS

Trustee Pec inquired about any updates on the lawsuit filed opposing the pension consolidation. Trustee Kobler shared he believes the injunction was not granted and the suit is still pending.
